Sixth Sunday of Easter

Welcome to worship.

Today is the sixth Sunday of Easter. All our senses help us to worship God. In worship today think about the different ways you use your senses—seeing, hearing, smelling, touching, and tasting.

Seen

Unseen

Draw something you see at worship.

An advocate

John 14:15-21

Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit to the disciples. He calls the Holy Spirit the Advocate.

The disciples could see Jesus. He had been with them to teach and guide them. Now the Holy Spirit would do the same thing in an unseen way forever. The Holy Spirit guides us too.

An advocate is someone who speaks or acts to help someone else.

Each of these young people has an advocate. Draw lines to match the pairs. Circle the person who is the advocate.

Help us hear you speaking to us, God.
Help us speak to others about you. Amen

Notice unseen things during worship by hearing, touching, smelling and tasting.
