MAY 2007

Hospitality & Homelessness

The April Council meeting began with a 6-minute video of the events of Genesis 18:1-15. Abraham is resting in the shade of his tent during the heat of the day when three strangers appear. Hospitality is offered to them without question. Food, drink, conversation, and shelter are prepared and given, until the visitors are ready to go on their way again. It was an obligation to do this; in that harsh climate, people have to depend upon others for survival. In addition, Abraham receives a great blessing in the course of the conversation.

Have things really changed that much? We are actually even more inter-dependent than we were generations ago. None of us can manage life in our complex society all alone. Disasters come upon us suddenly, our bank accounts can be quickly drained, and even more importantly, our spirits can be sapped by the crisis. We need help from each other!

It has been discovered that one of the pressing local needs is for emergency shelter for families that are in such a crisis. A few single men may be able to stay at the American rescue Workers facility. Some women may be sheltered at the YWCA. But what about families that do not have a home because of a job loss or a catastrophic illness that has struck? There is no place in the area for them to go to keep the family together and to work together toward solutions. Several of our members who work in social service jobs see the need for a local response to this problem.

Congregations in the area are beginning to investigate the problem and some possible solutions. The Shepherd of the Streets often hears from the family at the beginning of the crisis and may offer the first assistance. The apartments that are being renovated by New Covenant UCC will be available for families that are well on the way to renewed self-sufficiency with a potential Habitat house or some other arrangement. It is those in-between that are most in need. Fifty or more persons on a given night are without a home in the Williamsport area. At least some of those are families including children. Do we want to think that children are having to sleep in cars, move every few days from one place to another, or be in even less savory surroundings?

Can we do something toward handling this problem? The Council has been considering whether we can be one of the host congregations for the program called Family Promise. Thirteen or more congregations are needed to each offer food and shelter for several families for one week each quarter of the year. We have a marvelous building; we do have room! We are in a great location, close to transportation and civic services. We have persons who can offer a meal or companionship. The question that the Council is considering is whether we have the will to undertake a portion of this project.

A half-dozen individuals from St. Mark's have been attending the initial organizing meetings of Family Promise that have been held over the past three months. There are many questions to be asked and answered. There are many persons and resources that have to be located and enlisted. Slowly we will keep working until the "critical mass" is achieved and the project can begin.

The Council invites members of the congregation to gather on Sunday, May 20 or Sunday, June 10 at 9:00 A.M. in the Crossways room to gather basic information about the proposed project. If many of us each do a little bit, we can together make a large impact on this problem. Come and find out how!

Welcome To Our New Members!

Three persons renewed their baptismal promises at the Easter Vigil and have thereby become members of St. Mark's:

-- Megan Maiolo is a recent graduate of Lycoming College and continues to work locally during the time her fiancée Clint is still a student at Lycoming College. Her mentor during the past year has been Deb Holmes.

--Cheryl Williams is employed by PennDOT as was her recently-retired husband of one year, David. Her mentor has been Michele Ramsauer.

--Rachel Clausen is a recent Lycoming College graduate and is substitute teaching in music in the area as her fiance is preparing for graduate school. She is singing in the parish choir. Her mentor has been Brenda Bittner.

The Way Set to Conclude

The participants in The Way can hardly believe it is true, but their time together is nearly over. Renewers and mentors have met for 20 sessions since last September, as well as for regular participation in worship and projects. They have made new friends, have explored many aspects of the faith, and have enjoyed each other's company in doing it. With the continuing leadership of Bob Schultz and Pastor Elkin, the group made public their intent to participate in the process last December and asked for the congregation's continuing prayers, received gifts of useful tools for Christian living from the congregation as well as certificates making the various stages, renewed their baptismal promises at the Easter Vigil, and will make public their intent to continue activities for the coming year on Pentecost Sunday, May 27.

Recruitment for next season's group can begin at any time. What about you? Your friend? Your neighbor?

Update on Women's Clothing Sale

The Women of Saint Mark's extend a heartfelt thank you to the congregation for their support of our recent sale. The Bazaar Room was brim full with clothing and accessories. In the weeks before the sale we were the recipients of a $500.00 donation given anonymously by a member of our congregation. This was a wonderful incentive to do well the day of the sale, which we did. At the end of the day we made approximately $450.00 profit. This money qualifies for matching funds from Thrivent. It will be put to good use by the charities we support locally and globally.

Becky Miller Pryor, cheerleader of the group, wishes to thank the men and women of the congregation who assisted with setting up, working at the sale, and cleaning up afterwards. Without this commitment an event this size would not happen. Thanks and appreciation goes to Pastor and Donna, Shirley Hill, Dick and Louise Kneedler, Jackie and Shirley Kinney, Edith Anderson, Shirley Vognet. Lou DeSeau, Elsie Sechler, Russ and Lois Smith, Ernestine Doane, Dot Berndt, Dottie Bingaman, Alona Hopley, Jane Kline, Lucille Weaver, Carol Confer, and Judy Fortin.

CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY NEWS

Dear Pastor Elkin,

Greetings from near Tanga, Tanzania. I hope that you and your family are doing well.

We were recently visited by a dental team from the States, led by Dr Bob Zimmerman and which included Carl Heiber who has now visited us twice and been such a delight to us. The team was a tremendous blessing of help to our local community, which is a cluster of muslim, rural villages outside of the city of Tanga where life is tough and folk are very poor. Their visits have been a witness to the love of God and the way in which His people are willing to give of themselves.

It was particularly poignant this year as there has been significant opposition to us as our Christian witness in the area has become more overt and there are those who would like us to be gone. Carl brought with him a load of writing pads and pencils which we are told come via yourself. Please accept our thanks for these gifts which we have been able to pass out, especially to village leaders and teachers who struggle even for small items like those.

We are trying to give our very small emerging Christian community a sense of being part of the world-wide church family and so visits like that of the dental team help to develop that understanding. We thank God so much for the servant-hood of those who give up their time and money to come and serve with us amongst the Digo People. We thank God too for those who supported the team in prayer, and perhaps in other ways too.

May the Lord bless you as you serve him in the States. We so love the Body of Christ and thank God for His wisdom in giving us different jobs to do in different needy places, all for His glory.

Our greetings to your congregation from the few brothers and sisters here.

With love in the Lord Jesus,

Rachel Chard (Africa Inland Mission International.)

Dear Ms Miller Pryor,

Hello from near Tanga, Tanzania! I hope that you and your family are doing well.

We were recently visited by a dental team from the States, including Carl Heiber who has now twice blessed us with his company. The team was an enormous blessing of help to our local community, which is a cluster of rural African villages where life is tough and folk are very poor.

Carl brought with him gifts of t-shirts and baseball caps, which we are told by Carl come via yourself and your brother. Please accept our sincere thanks for your kindness; many people were very happy to get the t-shirts and caps.

May God bless you and your family.

Yours sincerely,

Rachel Chard (Africa Inland Mission International.)

Nurse's Notes

- May 6 Turtles and other reptile “pets” can pose a health risk especially to infants, children, pregnant women and people with compromised immune systems as they may serve as natural “hosts” to the bacteria Salmonella. Infection can lead to severe illness and in some cases, death. Through hand washing, including cleaning under fingernails is necessary after handling these reptiles, their water bowls, or their cages! GI symptoms usually appear 12-36 hours, but can begin anywhere from 6-72 hours after exposure.
- May 13 In addition to celebrating “Mother’s Day”, celebrate “Women’s Day” by acknowledging and thanking all the women who have played an important role in making you who you are today – the sisters, aunts, teachers, & Sunday School teachers!
- May 20 FYI for golfers: By walking the golf course, and carrying your own bag, you can get a reasonably good workout. Playing an 18-hole course can cover about 5 miles and help you burn an estimated 500 calories! (Wellness Made Easy, UC Berkley, 2005)
- May 27 For those taking up biking or planning to buy a bike for a child, here are some tips to insure proper ‘fit’. Handlebars, saddle, and wheels can all be adjusted to match your size and riding ability, but the frame has to fit from the start. According to the folks at UC Berkley, to find the proper frame size, straddle the bike and stand flat-footed: on a regular bike, there should be 1-2 inches of clearance between your groin and the top tube. On a mountain bike, it should be 3 inches or more. (Wellness Made Easy, UC Berkley, 2005)

SUMMER MISSION TRIPS

While the need for missions abroad is significant,
the need is also very great here!

CAN WE PROVIDE VOLUNTEERS FOR ONE OR BOTH OF THESE ENDEAVORS?

Pr. Kerry Auker and Alice Fox of St. John Lutheran, Jersey Shore, are coordinating a Mission Trip to Biloxi, Mississippi, June 25-29. They will be leaving Saturday, June 23, at 6:00 a.m., and staying overnight at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in Knoxville, Tennessee. Groups will carpool as a group, but the individual cars are on their own to schedule their return. Expenses for the travel days would be the responsibility of each individual, plus contributions toward fuel.

In Biloxi, volunteers will be staying in a dorm building or tent (air-conditioned) with beds. Lutheran Disaster Response (LDR) has provided a trailer with showers. Initially the suggested cost was $20/day or $100/week for accommodations and meals. However, in recent conversation LDR has said that if people do not have the money, they are urged to come anyway, as the need to help Hurricane Katrina victims is still great and the number of volunteers has dropped off significantly.

THEIR NEXT PLANNING MEETING IS SUNDAY, MAY 20, AT NOON AT ST. JOHN, JERSEY SHORE.
→ If any youth or adults interested in going, contact Bernadette ASAP.

St. Luke's, in Bloomsburg, is partnering with Bethlehem Lutheran Church in New Orleans to help rebuild/restore homes in their community. Our hosts can accommodate up to 40 persons. People of all ages are welcome. Skills are helpful but not necessary.

General Itinerary: Thursday, June 21: Fly to New Orleans; Friday and Saturday: Work on assigned projects; Sunday: Worship with our host parish at Bethlehem Lutheran Church; Relaxation/Sightseeing/ Exposure to some local culture; Monday and Tuesday: Work on assigned projects; Wednesday: Fly home.

Youth are welcome but must be accompanied by an adult. There are jobs for men and women, young and old. All persons going should have a current Tetanus vaccination.

HEALTH, HEALING & WHOLENESS

*“My eyes are ever toward the Lord, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.
Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.
Reliever the troubles of my heart, and bring me out of my distress.
Consider my afflictions and my trouble...” (Ps. 25:15-18a – NRSV)*

This is only one example of a prayer of lamentation – its author wounded and in search of help from God for his troubles – feels “lonely and afflicted”. These same words could easily describe a form of illness that an estimated 6 million men suffer from – depression. According to statistics from the CDC, National Institute of Mental Health, Mayo, and Cleveland Clinics, this is approximately half the rate of depression among women. But many researchers question if these statistics are indeed accurate, or are they only the tip of an iceberg? Why? First, men are less likely to discuss the way they are feeling, and second, due to the fact that some of their symptoms may not be “typical” (crying, sadness, loss of interest in past enjoyable activities) – a man’s depression may be overlooked or even misdiagnosed. These men, and the people who love them, are the target of this month’s article. That said, before you read any further, I’d like to share a quote from the National Institute of Mental Health, “Depression is a serious but treatable medical condition – a brain disease – that can strike anyone, including men” (<http://menanddepression.nimh.nih.gov>)! Depression is not a character flaw, nor a sign of weakness, but a treatable disease!

According to the Cleveland Clinic (www.clevelandclinic.org/health), “some mental health care professionals suggest that if the symptoms of depression were expanded to include anger, blame, lashing out, and abuse of alcohol, more men might be diagnosed with depression and treated appropriately.” Untreated, the root-cause of the symptoms soon spills over into personal relationships, workplace performance, and even physical health.

When they do visit their healthcare professional, men with depression are more likely to focus on physical complaints, such as: headaches, digestive problems, chronic pain, feeling tired, irritable, having trouble sleeping, leading to delay in treatment or misdiagnosis. Other indicators may include: family history, anger and frustration, losing weight without trying, risk-taking behaviors, inability to concentrate, isolation from loved ones, alcohol or substance abuse or thoughts of suicide. Being honest with the family healthcare provider is the first step toward effective treatment. Accurate reporting will help the provider rule out other potential causes of the symptoms such as: viral infection, side affect of medication, thyroid disorder, low testosterone levels, or the presence of heart disease or stroke. Once these sources have been eliminated, the next step would logically be depression screening by the physician or a behavioral health professional. The folks at the Cleveland Clinic estimate that “more than 80% of people with depression – both men and women – can be treated successfully with antidepressant medication, psychotherapy or a combination of both”. With treatment, negative feelings and beliefs should begin to fade, and allow you to reclaim your life once again!

If this sounds like you, or someone you love, and you are unsure of where to go for help, talk to someone you trust for example, a doctor, your parish nurse, a social worker, or religious leader. Ask his/her advice on how to seek treatment, and with the aid of the Holy Spirit, may your prayers of supplication become those of thanksgiving, “I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up ...I cried to you for help, and you have healed me” (Ps. 30:2-3, NRSV).

Spring Blessings!

SPECIAL THANK YOU'S

A hearty "Thank You" to all the folks at St. Mark's!! We surely have had a wonderful time the past 30 years in many areas of life within our church family. Many memories come to mind as I think back on our times together. When growing up as a young boy, it was almost beyond understanding that someone could work for 30 years in one place. Having done that, it does not seem to have been that long. I have been fortunate to love my vocation. I do not see it as a job, but the joy of being able to dedicate my energies to something I love to do. May we look forward to many more years together. ~ Dick Lakey

Dear St. Mark's members,

On behalf of our Dental Team which traveled to Tanzania in March, I thank you for your kindness. The tablets and pencils were greatly appreciated by everyone who received them.

I thank you for your prayers. There were definitely times when we were glad people at home were praying for us.

It was a fantastic trip, and I look forward to sharing pictures and stories with those who are interested.

God bless you all, Carl Hieber

Dear friends,

Thank you very much for donating the personal hygiene products to our ministry here at Shepherd of the Streets. Your donations were greatly appreciated as is your support.

Daelun Gwenberg, Volunteer

Dear friends,

Kindness like yours makes a difference. Thank you for your thoughts and prayers. Pastor Elkin thank you for your visit and prayers.

To my St. Mark's Family,

Heartfelt thanks for all the cards, visits and phone calls and the bread and soup I received as I recovered from surgery.

These expressions of thoughtfulness, love and caring warmed my heart and brought joy to my spirits,

I'm so very thankful and happy to be a member of St., Mark's family.

Love, Henrietta Tyson

Dear friends at St. Mark's Lutheran Church,

Your recent $118 donation to the Shepherd of the Streets Ministry is deeply appreciated.

Your gift of love is the spark needed for the candle to burn brighter in the hearts of those walking a difficult road.

We deeply appreciate your consistent support of this ministry. This is truly an expression of compassion for those in need. May God's peace and blessings be with you all.

Karen Nelson, Volunteer

Dear Children,

We would like to thank the St. Mark's Lutheran Church Sunday School children for their Lenten Collection of Change which has been donated to this ministry. Your hard work and love for others will help those who have very little. We deeply appreciate your act of compassion and pray that Jesus will bless and walk with you each day.
