

The Lion of St. Mark's

MARCH 2015

Singing with the Scriptures

The midweek series of services this year will focus on several of the songs of scripture.

We began on Ash Wednesday with Psalm 51, David's admission of guilt following the episode with Bathsheba. In the next two weeks we look at the two Canticles in Luke 1, the Benedictus, Zechariah's song regarding the birth of John the Baptist, and the Magnificat, Mary's song of joy which follows the angel's announcement of the impending birth of Jesus.

The midpoint of the season is consideration of the victory song, "This is the Feast" which is drawn from a group of passages in the book of Revelation.

The next two weeks we turn to Luke 2 and hear the Gloria in excelsis, the angels' hymn of praise, and the Nunc dimittis, Simeon's song of joy at the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple.

In Holy Week, we close the season with Psalm 136 as part of the Seder celebration.

In subsequent weeks, we gather for Mid Day prayer at 11:30 with lunch following; and for Evening Prayer at 7 PM preceded by supper at 6:15.

Regulations revised...action needed!

Thank you to all who hear and answer the call to work with the youth of our parish. We hold dear God's call to proclaim the Gospel to persons of every age, as Jesus himself said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them, for it is to such as these the kingdom of heaven belongs." [Lk.18:16] Through our many ministries, the congregation seeks the growth and health of the whole person: spirit, mind, emotion, and social interaction. For many years St. Mark's has had a policy to help us guard the safety of our youth. We were among the first local Lutheran congregations to develop such a written policy. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has enacted a law with strengthened provisions, which now requires all people who work with youth to have state police background checks and child abuse clearances. We will need to revise our policy and renew our records.

Everyone who teaches Sunday School, works with a group of youth, volunteers for Vacation Bible School or other youth events and trips, mentors a catechetical student, or has any other regular connection with youth of the church will need to have updated paperwork. The person appointed to manage these records is Michele Owen. Please speak with her to learn the procedures we need to follow. Some of the work can even be done online, and by law, must be completed before this summer. The Council has determined that the congregation will pay the fees for these clearances as part of our operational costs. We will provide an opportunity for anyone who wishes to make a contribution toward the considerable cost associated.

Meals to End Hunger...GOT CHANGE?

Pastor Kerry Aucker of St. John's Lutheran in Jersey Shore is organizing a meal packaging event on Saturday, April 11, 2015 in Jersey Shore. He hopes to receive funds and volunteers to package more than 40,000 meals of protein fortified macaroni and cheese or rice with beans to be distributed to area food banks. Each meal costs just $.25 to produce. The Social Ministry Committee hopes to collect quarters for the cost of the meals and to sign up a team of volunteers to work one or two hours the day of the event. Look for donation containers and sign-up sheets in the Narthex.

The News in our Pews

I decided this month to change the format and feature responses from our members about marriage since it is the month of February and Valentine's Day. It has been a fascinating experience as I played the roving reporter and received great answers from our couples of varying years of marriage.

A classic response by the husband is I let her have her own way but Ray Huff embellished that a little- he said he always has the last word, "Yes dear!" But he added his marriage to Cindy was successful for 43 years because he married "out of his league!"

Our own Martin Luther said "Let the wife make the husband glad to come home and let him make her sorry to see him leave!" Lots of our long time married folks paraphrased this thought. Phil Thomas who with Barbara will celebrate fifty years of marriage said "I fell in love with her smile and have loved her for all these years" Lovely sentiment! Barbara does have a lovely smile!

Carl Albright paid a beautiful tribute to Audrey - He said he loves her as much without makeup as he does with it!

Gregg and Kathy Dancho appreciate their differences - they complement each other - what one doesn't do well the other does and they always express their appreciation to each other when they do.

The philosopher Nietzsche said "It is not lack of love but lack of friendship that makes unhappy marriages" and that friendship was emphasized by many of our couples especially those married for decades.

Ted and Jane Larson, having shared 58 years together, agree that is crucial that two people genuinely like each other and share that friendship.

My own Harold and I agree that mutual respect, friendship and love and the enjoyment of being together as much as possible contribute to our almost 53 years of marriage.

Our daughter, Susan, observed that 90% of marriages with an autistic child fail but their close working bond and a good sense of humor work for them. She shared that when they argue they hold hands - good tip!

The Stillers, Mary Ann and Ray, have a mutual love for music and that has sustained their marital relationship. On the flip side, Carl and Lucille Weaver, after 65 years, say endurance plays a big part (and lots of homemade ice cream)

Commitment - that is the word used by several couples including my daughter Pam Jensen and her husband, Mike. Holly Tillman said she did not believe in divorce, murder perhaps, but not divorce - unfortunately that is credited to Dr. Joyce Brothers but is still an interesting observation.

Donna Elkin says that marriage for them is allowing each of them to spread our wings and fly off independently, but always coming back to enjoy the love they have found with each other.

What was wonderful about this exercise that lots of married couples said that this request gave them a chance to think about their marriage and what made it work - thanks to all who shared that with all of us!

I will close with a quote Donna shared with me that was in some papers of her Mother's:

*Woman was created from the rib of man
She was not made from his head to top him,
Not out of his feet to be trampled upon
But out of his side to be equal to him
Under his arm to be protected
And near his heart to be loved.*

Happy Valentine's Day 365 days of the year!

Bazaar Room Update

The weather outside has been frightful, so if you are passing the time indoors by cleaning closets or cupboards, the Women of St. Mark's continue to welcome your donations. The Bazaar Room is open for your donations of holiday decorations, housewares, toys in good condition and other treasures you no longer need or want. Please be sure all donated items are clean, in good condition and working properly. We are asking anyone who is placing items in the Bazaar Room to pack them securely in a box that we can move easily at the time of the bazaar. Computer paper boxes or similar sized boxes are ones we can move easily.

We cannot accept cribs, mattresses, car seats, broken or non-working items of any kind, mismatched plastic containers, outdated computers/electronics, TV's, textbooks, encyclopedias or large pieces of exercise equipment. Clothing may be donated to Daniel's Closet.

This year's Fall Bazaar will be Saturday, September 12, 2015.

With your help it will be a success.

Contact Shirley Hill or Becky Miller Pryor with questions.

- † Other times for drop off may be arranged by calling Redeemer's office at 570-322-2333. Michele Owen has graciously offered to take any clothing brought to St. Mark's to Redeemer.

Sharing In The Caring

Many thanks are given to the congregation for their regular donations of non-perishable food items. Recently our bins were full and delivered to the United Churches Food Bank. Please read the information that follows and prayerfully consider your response.

Gail Burkhart, coordinator of the United Churches Food Bank reports that the need for non-perishable food items is greater now than at any time in their past history. In January, almost 550 people came to the Food Bank for assistance. This was 150 more folks than this time last year! Please consider regularly donating one or two non-perishable food items to assist with their outreach. Donations may be placed in the bins in the Narthex.

The Shepherd of the Street's office is in great need of family hygiene items as well as baby care items, disposable diapers in all sizes and bedding (especially blankets.) Bedding may be gently used or new. Please also consider donating an item or two to the Shepherd's outreach. These donations may also be placed in the bins in the Narthex.

The Latest from Family Promise

We finished a very successful week hosting two families in January. The families were wonderful guests, and we especially enjoyed holding the sweet 8 month old little girl who was full of smiles. Many thanks to the volunteers from our church and from Bethel and First Presbyterian churches who work with us. Debbie and I are so blest to be coordinators at St. Marks where we have no trouble finding willing workers for this ministry. Would you believe that the total number of hours donated to hosting this week were 286! And we may have missed some. Great Job, St. Marks!!!

Our next hosting week will be May 10 - 17. If you want to sign up early, contact Deb, Donna, or the office. If you haven't volunteered before, but are interested, let us know and we will happily add you to the list of volunteers. If you don't know how you can help, check with us. There are all kinds of jobs.

A letter will be coming to all volunteers from St. Marks who have worked or expressed interest in Family Promise over the first five years of its operation in Williamsport. We are simply trying to check in with everyone to make sure all information is up to date. If you don't get a letter before the May hosting, please let us know.

IRON CHEF WILLIAMSPORT has become a major fund raiser for Family Promise and we are proud that St. Marks offers this to them. The competition is March 1 and is a fun time for all, except maybe the chefs who are under stress to win. This is the seventh time it has been held. If you haven't made it to one yet, try to get there now or in the future. You can also watch the competition on your computer. Check with the church for the link.

Lunches for Habitat Builds ~ Can You Help?

In 2015 the Social Ministry Chairperson (Becky Pryor) would like to schedule up to four lunches (one per season) to support a Habitat build. For this to be possible I need help from the congregation. We will need various food items and monetary donations to purchase the items not donated. We will also need a few folks to serve lunches at the Habitat site. Please speak with me if you can assist in any of those ways. I am confident that with planning we can respond in Christ's name. I am in the process of scheduling a Saturday date for March or April. Please see our weekly bulletins for updates.

A Heartfelt Thank You from Michele & Daniel's Closet!

Daniel's Closet - Michele would like to thank everyone that donates to Daniel's Closet. Clothes donations remain seasonal, April will be when they start accepting spring/summer clothing drop-offs. Drop-offs are the third Thursday of every month. Just a reminder to please keep bazaar items separate from clothing donations. Bazaar items go to the Bazaar Room but clothing drop offs can be placed in Michele's office. Thank you for your continued support of this program!!! If you have any questions please call Michele at 323-4619 or email mowen@stmarkswilliamsport.org

It's Time to Think about Camp Mount Luther!

It's time now to think about being part of the camp's 2015 programs!
This year's summer camp season will begin on June 14 and run until August 16.

There are programs for all ages from preschool to senior high, and also for adults and families.

During your time at camp, you'll experience the love of Jesus Christ in new ways as you live in an intentional Christian community. You'll connect with God's creation, as you swim, play, sing, eat, do crafts, and maybe even you'll get buried in the sand!

You'll serve God with a smile, as you learn more about how to be a disciple in an ever-changing world.

You may even discover some gifts you have that you can use to help others!

Camp provides a safe place for people of all ages to relax and unwind in nature, discover God's love, sing around the campfire, learn more about themselves, and make new friends while at the same time being renewed in mind and spirit.

The summer brochure will be outside of Michele's office if you are interested in any programs, the church pays at least half of the amount of the program.

Calling the hearts, hands and feet of Christ!

We still need some volunteers to teach our Children's Sunday School classes over the next few months. It is only a month long commitment and Michele will have all the materials and the Sunday School room ready for you. If you feel you're not ready to teach alone why not co-teach with another member? Contact Michele if you would consider filling a spot either alone or with another adult. Thank you!
