

THE LION OF ST. MARK'S

AUGUST 2018

Celebrating Independence Day with St. Mark's

Our Independence Day tradition continues. St. Mark's again hosted a front lawn party on July Fourth as part of a city-wide celebration of Independence Day. Everyone who passed the church was offered free food, drink and trinkets by one of our many volunteers stationed along the street.

How much did the revelers consume?

- ★Cases of bottled water and soda
- ★Gallons of lemonade and ice tea
- ★200 packages of salty snacks
- ★Pounds and pounds of candy and fruit snacks
- ★20 pounds of popcorn, popped!
- ★300 hot dogs
- ★Hundreds of trinkets, necklaces and kiddie tattoos.

The Commonwealth Brass Quintet with assistance from Nathan Fulkerson, Theo Lentz, and Bernadette Jones presented a patriotic program in our nave with more than 85 people enjoying the presentation and participating in singing along.

People donated $401.29 to The United Churches of Lycoming County to be shared equally by the United Churches' Food Pantry and the Shepherd of the Streets.

The Outreach Committee heartily thanks the congregation for the many donations of candy, trinkets water, salty snacks, hot dogs, buns and money to support this event. Extra special thanks go to the many members of the congregation who volunteered to set up, serve and clean up this event all in time for the fireworks. Thanks also to the Pepsi Bottling Company of Williamsport for donating cases of soda and water. Our front lawn celebration was a wonderful outreach to all as we celebrated God, country and community on this historic day.

The Fishing Derby held at Doeblers' Pond on July 15 was attended by about 25 folks. Hot dogs, drinks, and snacks were shared by all while enthusiastic anglers tried their luck at the water. The fish weren't biting too well that day, but Nolan Ott, grandson of George and Kay Poliska, ended up winning all three categories! The first fish caught, the largest, and the most! As you can see here, he was one happy camper that day!

Many thanks to Bud Doebler and the rest of the family for letting us descend on the pond every year. Bud also took the photos this year, more of which can be found on page eight.

Grace to you and peace.

Who knew, I'm still here.

When I was studying to be a pastor, I remember hearing these words, "Now that you don't have anything to do to earn eternal life, what do you want to do?" Who knew that part of eternal life includes waiting for Pastor Next? That being the case, what do you want to do?

I know one thing that I'll get to do that I hadn't expected to do. On Wednesday 15 August around 5 p.m., I'll watch the Grand Slam Parade pass by the Lycoming County Historical Society. I'll get to drink one of the first cups of coffee brewed and served by Back house Café at 901 W. Fourth Street. Bill Wright and I have had some good conversations over the back fence. For some time he's had this sign in the front yard, "Future Site of Backhouse Café Coffee and Tea". Their future becomes reality in August. And so it will be for St. Mark's when you meet Pastor Next. While Bill is working on the details of opening his café, we get to work on the details of calling Pastor Next.

As for me, God alone knows what's next for me. It's all part of the interim between Christ's ascension and return. I invite you to join me in hanging our collective heart on Jesus who knows what he's up to and invites us to follow him. In this interim time, we walk as we always have, by faith.

Pray for me as I pray for you, always in Christ Jesus.
Pastor James West

Lutheran-Catholic Dialogue

The conversation continues! Our next gathering will be Tuesday, August 14 at 7 PM at Perkins (in the back room). Among other things, we will look toward the fall and begin to plan another joint prayer service. All are welcome!

Little League is almost here!

As you may know, Family Promise has the privilege of running the parking concession at Beiters for Little League. Beiters will give us 100% of the money that is taken in--making this a HUGE fundraiser for our organization. And the best part? It's actually fun! Volunteers get the chance to talk to visitors from across the country and around the world.

We still have several slots to fill and could use your help! The parking begins Thursday, August 16 and continues until the championship game on Sunday, August 26. Volunteers can choose to work one or more of the following shifts:

7:00 a.m. - Noon

Noon - 4:00 p.m.

4:00 p.m. - 8:00-ish p.m., depending on game schedules.

If you are interested in helping out, please email Mary Ann Vance, mavance@comcast.net, with your approximate availability and phone number.

This fundraiser is a terrific opportunity to enjoy Williamsport's favorite pastime event and to help out a great cause. We hope you can join us!

KITS of CARE—Gifts from God

Imagine not having soap to wash your baby! Experiencing natural disasters, violence, or living in poverty is a way of life for many people. Ordinary items, such as pencil and paper or soap and a towel for a child, can make a difference for people who have nothing.

Summer sales in stores will begin soon. Bags for School Kits will be in the Narthex in July. Fill them with the school items listed and return them over the summer. Or, you may wish to make up Personal Care Kits, Baby Care Kits, Fabric Kits, or donate soap bars. Kits of Care bring relief and hope!

All kits and soap bars are due by September 10th.

Put your faith into action!

CECIL GOES TO THE BALL!!

Liz Ruesskamp sends us regular greetings from Cecil the Centipede. If anyone would like to send return greetings to Liz, her address is on page 7.

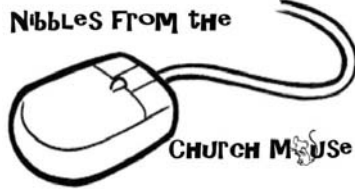

NEW SAFETY PROTOCOL

For church safety and the safety of our congregation, all doors will remain locked, except the office door on weekdays from 9:00am—1:00pm.

Please use the main narthex door or the side handicap entrance near the sacristy on Sundays. Once the service begins, all doors will be locked. For those coming late, the narthex door will be the only entrance.

My Mother-in-law was fond of saying, in a very doleful voice the “after the fourth of July, the summer is over!”

Certainly hope that is not the case—June was a kind of disappointment and it seems summer is just getting underway!

Our newly graduated high school seniors have finished one stage of life and are getting ready to begin the next, still basking in the glory of their performance in high school. Ben Haussmann received several awards at Williamsport High School commencement - the class of 1992 Steven Wiser Award, the Mitstifer Memorial Award and the WAHS PTSO David Stuempfle Award. Ben will enter Juniata University in the fall. Even Barone, soon to be a freshman at Penn State, was given the Richard S. Connor Award. At Loyalsock Township’s awards night, Grace Schreckengast received the Shuman Miller Memorial Award, the Olga Musheno Nursing Award, Richard Triacca Memorial Scholarship, Wmspt./Lycoming Student of the Quarter, Lyco. Co. Band Director’s Award, and the Repasz Band Award. Grace will be attending Eastern University in the fall. Excellent work by all these young people!

Don’t always catch all the honor rolls but did note that Jonah Schreckengast was on the distinguished honor roll at the Loyalsock Middle School. At the Eighth Grade Awards assembly, he earned the Wayne Rose Good Choices award and Highest Academic awards in all his the major subjects. Great job, Jonah!

Kudos to Bernadette Jones for her direction of “Anything Goes” at the Community Theater League – heard wonderful things about the production! It was a family affair –husband, Bob was the choreographer and daughter Sara Jones was stage manager. Not to be outdone Declan sang and danced up a storm as a member of the cast! The piano accompanist was none other than our own Donna Elkin!

Amalie Robertson won an honorable mention in the Personal Essay and Memoir category of the Scholastic Art and Writing awards. The awards are the longest running and most prestigious recognition awards given to students from grades 7-12. Amalie’s essay was entitled “A Mind of Its Own”.

Just a personal note – our call committee has been working very diligently to secure new pastoral leadership at St. Mark’s – it has been time consuming and sometimes disappointing – give them a little encouragement when you see them!

Enjoy the rest of the summer – it does go by very quickly. If I missed your exciting news, it is because you did not send it to me, so keep those messages coming!

Joyce S. Hershberger, Official Church Mouse

Family Promise

The next Family Promise hosting will be Sept. 16 -23. Now is the time to look at your calendars and see when you can help. David and I (and our helpers) will be looking for people to drive the van, provide the evening meal, be evening hosts, and also the sleep over hosts. We will need desserts for the evening meals plus snack items. St. Mark's also is responsible for providing the breakfast and lunch items for the day center for our hosting week. Beginning Sunday, August 12th, there will be signup sheets for the various roles in the narthex.

Please pray about your service to these families who have lost their home due to job loss, medical issues, and other unfortunate circumstances. More information on how many guests we will have will be available the week before our hosting.

Thanks for your help and God bless - Deb Buckman and David Williams

The Bazaar Room is ALMOST FULL but we still need your stuff!

If you are finding items you no longer need, the Women of St. Mark’s will gladly accept them for their Fall Bazaar. If you find that the Bazaar Room is too full for your donations of holiday decorations, housewares, toys in good condition and other treasures you no longer need or want they may be placed on the stage beginning this month. It already has many tubs from folks downsizing but we can make it work. Please be sure that all donated items are clean, in good condition and working properly. Please do not block the stage door.

This year’s Fall Bazaar is on Saturday, September 8, 2018.

With your help it will be a success.

Operation Christmas Child

Our shoeboxes are getting closer and closer to being filled with just three more months of collecting to go! We bet you might have a good guess as to what August (and September's) collections might be. Did you say school supplies? Then you are absolutely correct!

In August we are indeed collecting school supplies (crayons, pencils, pens, erasers, scissors, etc.) Keep an eye out for those great sales that are sure to be just around the corner. (And is it really time to think about back to school? Summer slow down!)

These items (or any others you find) may be placed in our red, OCC bin located in the narthex.

Thank you, thank you!

If you can do one or more of these things the Outreach Committee would love to have you on our team. We meet the first Tuesday of each month at 6:30 PM in Middle Lounge. Join us August 7, 2018 to learn more, or call Becky Miller Pryor at 570-971-4585 for information.
