

THE LION OF ST. MARK'S

FEBRUARY 2019

Souper Bowl Sunday

The barrels are set up! The teams have been determined! Rams vs. Patriots! Place your food item or monetary donation in the bin/pot of your favorite team...we'll let you know how our "competition" did in comparison with the Super Bowl!

Souper Bowl Sunday is an effort, led by teens, to glorify God and care for "the least of these" by each worshiper giving a can of food or the cost of a can of food ($1), for two weeks, ending on Super Bowl Sunday, February 3.

In 2017, this drive generated a grand total of $8,170,697 in cash and food items by 3,817 groups. In our area, monies collected go directly to Shepherd of the Streets; cans of soup or other food goes to our local food bank.

Souper Bowl of Caring began in 1990 and since then they have received reports of over $140 Million in cash and food items being donated around the country!

Open or Closed? ~ by Pastor West

On our snowy, icy, rainy Sunday, January 20, we had a combined total of 15 at worship, counting me three times, and our Music Director, Christian, twice and not counting Ed and Lou who were outside the whole time clearing the walks and entryways. Halfway through the 10:30 a.m. service a guest arrived. Since we were meeting in the chancel area where the choir usually sits, I welcomed him and motioned for him to join us. I thought to myself, he probably found us because Ed and Lou were working outside and he could tell that we were open.

The sermon was about the wine shortage at the wedding in Cana where Jesus, his mother and his disciples were as we sometimes say, "milling about smartly". We sang a song and confessed the faith by reciting the Apostles' Creed. Running through my mind was what about our visitor. How do I invite him to communion? Then it came to me, I asked him, "Do you believe what you just read?" He said, "Yes." Then I asked, are you baptized, he replied, "No." I asked, "Do you want to be?" In a few short words that may have included I've thought about it, he answered "Yes."

With a bit of "milling about smartly", we got everything ready and he was baptized. He received communion with us and afterwards five of us went across the street to have Sunday brunch and some conversation about what had just happened. Throughout it all, we were in that deep awareness of this is how it's supposed to be. This is the Acts of the Apostles happening now. The guest is now a member of the Body of Christ, has sponsors, and we'll see where the Spirit leads all of us. The story is open ended. Which reminded all of us that so is the book of Acts, we aren't sure what all happened to Paul in Rome while he continued to entertain visitors in his apartment in Rome. Perhaps we are writing Acts 29.

We are stewards of the mystery of God. We "do whatever he tells you to do" and we saw the water become life giving water welling up to eternal life, and the bread and wine become Christ's body and blood among us. It was something that could only have happened on an unordinary day when the church was nearly empty and all we had was the Word, the Water, the Bread and the Wine. It was enough.

Our biannual Hobby Expo is February 17, 2019!

Have you thought about what you might want to display? Do you sew, crochet, or knit? Are you an artist? Do you have a collection you'd like to share? Are you a "crafty" person? If you're a cook, would you like to make something to share?

For those who wish to exhibit their enthusiasms, contact Bernadette via email or sign up in the narthex, the staff hallway, or in the main office. All presenters have up to an 8' table [an entire table to yourself or 1/2 (4'), sharing with another] on which to set up a presentation or demonstration. When you sign up, please indicate the title of your display, the space needed, and any special needs, ex: electricity, water...

Is there anyone for whom cooking is your hobby? If you want, you can help with the refreshments! Cards indicating the creation and the chef will be provided.

This is always a fun event and we hope to see you there!

VALENTINE TIP: No matter how sweet the deal, resist getting roses at the Hardware store. (inspired by an actual Sunday Paper ad)

Anyone who is to find Christ must first find the church. How could anyone know where Christ is and what faith is in him unless he knew where his believers are?

~ Martin Luther

HAVE A HEART, DONATE SMART!

In 2018 the Newberry Branch of NGA (Needlework Guild of America) gave NEW clothing, coats, shoes and personal care items to more than 730 people, primarily children, in the Greater Williamsport Area. Like Old Mother Hubbard our cupboard is now bare. Please consider donating a much needed item to replenish our inventory so we can continue to answer the call for new clothing. This year we are focusing on clothing items for young children.

It is easy to help. Beginning in mid-February take a heart from the trees in the Narthex and purchase the item listed on it. It can be one pair or a package. Donations can be placed in the tub in the Narthex. All donations are greatly appreciated. See Vicki Haussmann or Deb Buckman for more information.

Safety committee update:

On Sundays, with the main access to the building being the narthex door, you are allowed to park along the curb in front of the church and on the north & south sides. This will put you closer to the narthex door and allow you to move more quickly to the more cleared surface of the sidewalk.

During the week, the visitors' spaces by the playground and along the curb in front of the building are available for parking, putting you closer to the office door. If you have things to unload for the bazaar or Daniel's Closet, you can park by the Fellowship Hall door and walk around to the office door or, if you have a cell phone, call in to the church (570-323-4619) to have someone meet you at the backdoor. Reminder: office hours are M-F, 9:00-1:00.

Things to remember regarding the doors:

- ☞ If you unlock a door, please lock it behind you.
- ☞ If you unlock a door for another person, please return to that door to ensure that it is secured.
- ☞ If you find a door unlocked, please lock it.

Thank you!

MILESTONE CELEBRATION!

ALL THE LANGUAGES OF THE GOOD NEWS

Sunday, February 10, 2019

This milestone was created especially for children around age five—just when they are starting to get out into the world more and experience new things.

This milestone shows children all the ways in which the Good News can be communicated to others: through art, through music, and via the written word. Keepsakes representing all of these are presented to the children in a personalized bag which they can decorate, showing how God's love is apparent in their lives.

Nibbles from the Church Mouse

Webster has lots of meanings for resolution—many of which have no connection to New Year’s resolutions. In fact, the closest was a” resolute state of mind.” Then if you go back to resolve, it says “to change or to transform”—which is my understanding of what a resolution is. That began my search to find out how our congregation dealt with the question of making New Year’s resolution.

Most folks I talked to said they did not make resolutions because they did not want to experience failure (Bernadette) or would resolve something they could not do as Pastor West says he resolves to give up Lent for Lent—an impossibility for him.

On Sunday I decided to try the Sunday School class and was happy to find Taylor Wentzel who queried her classmates and came up with the following: Hannah Haussmann resolved to keep her car and her room clean as did Elizabeth Haussmann (just her room). Sadie Wentzel will strive to be healthier, get more sleep, and organize her room. Then my reporter Taylor wants to live a healthier lifestyle and drink more water. The most unusual was Owen Gair who resolves to grow taller! I loved it and appreciate the response of our young folks!

In my family, grandson, Sean Jensen, resolves to heal from his broken arm and be an even better basketball player and Pam wants to meet everyone she sees with a smile! Great thought— we could all use more smiles.

Grandson, James Newcomer, wants to eat healthier and utilize a healthy lifestyle.

Outside of the perennial resolution to lose some weight, I want to get my house more organized and get rid of the clutter.

Spoke with Vickie Haussmann on Saturday and she has resolved to give up Mountain Dew— which she has done and feels it has resulted in her feeling more energized. Good tip!

I think that time goes by so quickly and the years begin to add up, perhaps it is a good resolution to enjoy each day, make it meaningful for you or someone you love, and take a little time to get outdoors and enjoy the wonderful world God has given us!

Blessings, Joyce S. Hershberger

We are off and running with our 2019 shoebox collections, thanks to everyone who donated in January! Next time you are in the Narthex, take a look at the example of the shoebox we are building together as a congregation. These monthly collections will enable us to easily assemble 45 shoeboxes come November!

Our February collection will be:

- Bars of Soap
- Plastic Soap Boxes
- Dark Colored Washcloths

Choose one, choose all! Please place donations in the red, OCC bin located in the Narthex. As always, thank you for your continued generosity! .

My Christmas on You!

In the States it’s considered a little rude to say things like, “Where’s my gift?” or “I am expecting you to give me something for Christmas.” Liberians are a somewhat less inhibited and quick to say, “My Christmas on you,” which immediately burdens the hearer with an obligation to produce a Christmas gift. Near as I can tell, when you hear these words you have three options:

- Option 1: You agree and produce a gift (typically small money).
- Option 2: You say, “I will look for it,” which is a nice way of saying, “I don’t think so.”
- Option 3: You play fun with, “I will take bath and it will move,” followed by either party playing the Christmas trump card, “My Christmas in your blood,” because everybody knows taking bath doesn’t move things from your blood!

There’s some theology in here somewhere, Christmas being in your blood, if it’s in your blood it can’t move, the word conveying obligation...if y’all figure it out then let me know.

Liberian English

- blocker: guardrail
- breaking vein: stretch marks
- fine-girl!: Hey you! (When you are calling any female under the age of 25)
- fine-boy!: Hey you! (When you are calling any male under the age of 25)
- play fun: have fun, tease, joke

Excerpts from the “Trying Small” update by Brian Palmer, ELCA Pastor/Missionary serving in Totota, Liberia

Valentine’s Day Wishes

On February 10, 2019 join the Outreach Committee in the Narthex after each service. While chatting with family and friends, Valentine’s Day cards and a small gift will be available to deliver to our Special Concern folks and others. Please help us spread some mid-winter cheer by delivering a card and gift to folks we do not see as often as we wish.

Christmas Thanks

The Christian Education and Outreach Committees thank the congregation for their generous support of our Reverse Advent and Christmas projects. The United Churches Food Pantry received more than 314 food items. The Shepherd's office received 102 hygiene items. And the Little Ones Clothing Closet (A children's free clothing ministry of St. Joseph the Worker Parish) received 31 assorted hats, gloves and scarves. All items were much needed and greatly appreciated by those receiving them. Bins remain in the Narthex for food and hygiene items for those church members who wish to continue "sharing in the caring."

Joyous thanks to all the St. Mark's Elves who have made our Christmas brighter with gifts and cookies. We are truly humbled and honored to be remembered. George was laid off from his previous temporary job for 6 weeks (with only $152 per week in unemployment compensation) until we found him a new job at Ralph S. Alberts, Montoursville. This is a full-time, permanent position. We pray he will be able to stay there until he retires. Our family at St. Mark's has made our Christmas very special, indeed.

In a few weeks, the students will return to campus. Our Bible Study will start back up on Monday nights. The students will continue to get together throughout the week to grow in God's Word through prayer group and worship service. UCM will continue with Jesus and Java on Wednesdays.

New for this semester...at the students' suggestion...we will be kicking off Random Acts of Kindness on campus. I will keep you posted as to ways you could help with that.

Next month's newsletter will have our soup order form in it. This is our only fundraiser of the year. Please consider supporting UCM through ordering a quart of soup. If you would rather support our soup fundraiser by preparing and donating soup, please email me so I can get your "specialty" on the order form.
