Gifts to share

When someone gives you a gift, you say “thank you.” God has given you many gifts and talents to share with others.

Draw a way you can share God’s gifts to you with others.

Plan how you can do what you drew.

this week

Make a family list of the many daily gifts we receive from God.

Welcome to worship. Have you ever gone on a treasure hunt? Use your finger to trace the lines. The SERVE GOD path leads to the best treasure. Our possessions and our money are not treasures to store up or hide. They are gifts from God. Serving God is the real treasure in life.

A mixed-up story

Luke 16:1-13

Today's gospel is a mixed up story. Even though the manager was losing money for the rich man, he was not punished. He was praised for what he did! Jesus says, "Whoever is faithful in a little is also faithful in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much." Our goal is to be faithful to God with all of our money, time, and energy.

We can serve God instead of serving our money. If we worry about making money instead of serving God, our lives become as mixed up as the manager's story.

Find and circle five money things that would not fit in a story set in Bible times.

*You are our treasure, Lord.
Amen*
