

At all times and in all places

In worship we say, "It is right to give thanks and praise." We can thank and praise God in all places and at all times. Our love of God is the same even when our thanks comes to God in different words and different places.

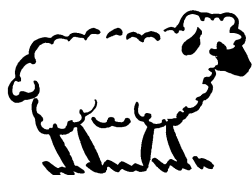

Words can have the same sounds but different meanings. Circle the word that matches the picture.

Dear Lord, we give you thanks at all times for our daily gifts. Amen

Draw a face on each of your fingers with a pen or marker. Then retell the story of the 10 healed by Jesus and the one who came back to give thanks.

Welcome to worship. What time is it? Time to give thanks! Match the clocks with the correct scenes. What kind of prayer would you pray at each of these times?

Lord, have mercy

Luke 17:11-19

Kyrie eleison means Lord, have mercy. Say: KEE-ree-ay eh-LAY-ee-son. Like the people healed in today's gospel, we ask for God's mercy, peace, and help for us and all people.
