

The Lion of St. Mark's

MAY 2010

IRON CHEF Williamsport

At 5:00 P.M., Sunday, April 25, 2010, a full house of 110 guests gathered in Fellowship Hall, here at St. Mark's, waiting to be fed and entertained. The kitchen staff, under the direction of Bob Jones, was ready and waiting to plate up the meal featuring a Chicken Cordon Bleu entrée and a Chocolate Atrocity for dessert; Declan had his dining room staff primed to provide the best service in town; Carlos and his crew were making final equipment checks; and Pastor Elkin, haunting the halls, was heard to be muttering, "Salmon?... Eggplant?... GRITS?... DRAT!?!". Meanwhile, Ruth Rees and Bernadette Jones were making alternate plans in case their leader should bolt...

Fortunately, those plans were unnecessary and our home team faced up to First United Methodist with all the fortitude and culinary skills they had at their disposal. Both teams had to prepare a shrimp appetizer and salmon as an entrée. At that point, however, things got tricky: as their vegetable and starch, St. Mark's was required to work with, indeed, eggplant and grits; while First Church was given bok choy and wild rice. As an added challenge this year, an ultra-secret ingredient of honeydew melon was given to us 10 minutes into the competition. No planning ahead for that one!

The menus were as follows:

ST. MARK'S:	FIRST CHURCH:
Prosciutto Shrimp with Cucumber-Melon Salsa	Cajun Shrimp with Fruit Salsa
Salmon with Sweet Chili Glaze	Grilled Salmon
Grilled Eggplant Stack	Asian Bok Choy Salad
Garlic Grits w/ Asiago Cheese	Rice Pilaf w/ cranberries
Crepes w/ Apple-Honeydew & Frangelica Flavored Glaze Apple-Honeydew

The results were:

ST. MARK'S: 213	1ST CHURCH: 212

The competition was stiff: referee Chef Mike Ditchfield kept them honest and the judges—Chef Rob Armstrong, Chef Peter Zerbe and Chef Michael Yaw—came to a fair conclusion. Congratulations to both teams!

Many thanks go out to our patrons and guests; to all those who worked so hard preparing and serving the meal; to our worthy opponents and officials; our emcee, Gary Chrisman; and First Contact Productions for their technical expertise (list on page 10).

A total of over $6000 was raised for Family Promise of Lycoming County. Most of this was from our generous patrons; a large part in ticket sales; still more from the purchase of the stained-glass centerpieces; Theoron Hershey won the prize from the WCC kitchen staff, earning the most "Tips for a Promise" from the guests he/she was serving. The youth earned a total of $481 in tips from their tables.

All in all: a good time for a great cause!

Singers Needed for Assembly Choir

The Bishop's Committee on Worship, which is planning worship for Synod Assembly on June 18-19, invites you to sing as part of the Synod Assembly Choir that will provide musical leadership for the Eucharist on Friday, June 18, at 10:00 a.m. and Saturday, June 19, at 10:00 a.m. in the Field House at Susquehanna University. In addition to leading the liturgy and hymns, the choir will prepare special music for the service. The assembly is being held in the Field House due to renovations in Weber Chapel. Interesting instrumentation is being planned. Adult and high school singers who would like to sing in the Assembly Choir should have some choral experience in church and/or school. CAMP MOUNT LUTHER

Campus Ministry

We've had some exciting things happen this year with our partnership with Penn College. The religious organizations on campus are being recognized as a more formal part of the campus and we will be working with the Academic Affairs Office to help with different campus events. This is very promising as we will have more contact with the students and can form relationships with them.

As we wind down we want to thank you for your support throughout the year. Your support was especially evident at our annual Lasagna Dinner held on April 7. We are thankful for the support of our sponsors, Stroehmann, Giant, Wegmans' and Sheetz. They generously supplied rolls and gift cards to purchase supplies for the dinner. Special thanks to the following churches that have helped us by providing lasagna, cakes, and salad:

Montoursville Presbyterian

St. John Newberry United Methodist

St. Joseph the Worker Catholic

St. Mark's Lutheran

St. Matthew's Lutheran

St. Michael's Lutheran

Trinity Episcopal

St. Paul Calvary United Methodist

We were able to raise over $500 for future mission trips. We hope you enjoyed the dinner!

The final activity for the students will be our study bags that will be handed out for finals week at the beginning of May. If you are interested in putting together study bags, please let me know by April 30th.

Five of our group will graduate this May: Michelle Mertes, Gene Raser, Chris Serphine, and Michael Yaw. Congratulations to each of you as you complete this semester and move into the next segment of your life. Best wishes to Michelle Mertes and Michael Yaw on their recent engagement.

News from the Pews

Lots of exciting things to report as we get into the Spring season- I have observed many of our congregation at all ends of the age spectrum – young and senior and those in the middle – appearing in the newspaper in recognition of their accomplishments!

Annika Waffenschmidt was a member of the cast of "Odyssey" performed at West Branch School and also wrote an article about the production for the newspaper account.

Richard Miller recently received the 2010 Outstanding Educator Award from the Williamsport/Lycoming Chamber of Commerce. This award is given annually to individuals for extraordinary contributions to the education profession. Dick is a secondary mathematics educator in the Loyalsock School District where he has served for thirty-seven years. He will retire at the conclusion of this school year. Great work, Dick!

Drew Haussmann was a participant in the dedication of the Medical Plaza in Montoursville. Doctor Haussmann will be serving at that new facility.

LouAnn Zeigler, Central Elementary School counselor was pictured advising new parents who were registering their children for kindergarten.

There was a tribute to Dot Berndt marking the 70th anniversary of her graduation from Lycoming College. Dot was a music student at the former Dickinson Seminary and has been playing the piano for 81 years. Her daughter and granddaughter were pictured and recognized as graduates of Lycoming. Dot's daughter, Barb Horn, has been an employee of Lycoming for 31 years as an administrative assistant in the education department. And granddaughter, Sarah Horn, is a corrections officer in Lycoming County.

Kara Hershey, not to be outdone by brother and honor roll student Theoron, has been named the Junior Rotarian for Round Hills School.

Last but by no means least, Hannah and Ben Haussman and Sean Jensen have had their books published in a special project at Sheridan School. Wow, we have so much to be proud of at St. Mark's – add your best wishes to these folks when you see them!

Breakfast with the Pastor & St. Mark's Annual Easter Egg Hunt

On Saturday, April 3, 2010, almost 70 children, youth and adults gathered to celebrate the beginning of the Easter season. Declan, Sara, Devin, Riley, Theoron, Kara, Corey and Max hid the eggs, ran the dining room and were instrumental in preparing the meal of scrambled eggs, pancakes and sausage. Pr. Elkin had a talk with the children before the meal. It was a beautiful day and a wonderful time—please join us next year!

In the Kitchen on Easter Morning at St. Mark's

On Easter morning, the gang at Sunday School gathered in St. Mark's kitchen to make Easter Cookies! The children crushed the nuts, added the ingredients, mixed, whipped and dropped the cookies before popping them into the oven! At each stage of the procedure, a different Bible verse was read by one of the children which reminded us of different things that occurred during Jesus' last hours before death on the cross. The students were very involved with the activity and were excited to see that their "tombs" (the finished cookies) were empty when they broke them open!!

During experimentation with the recipe the day before, Michele and Bernadette learned that the cookies had to rest overnight in the oven—that they wouldn't be finished in 15 minutes as the directions said. No problem, back in the oven they went. When the children finished mixing and dropping their cookies, they put them into one oven which was then "sealed." The oven with the finished cookies was opened and the kids got to break open and eat those.

The rest of the story: Wednesday afternoon, as Bernadette was taking food to Sharon at the Lasagna dinner, it occurred to her to tell Sharon about the fun activity. This led to a phone call to Michele which ended in raucous laughter—the cookies were still in the oven!!!

Clothing Sale Update

On behalf of the Women of St. Mark's, Shirley Hill and Becky Miller Pryor wish to thank the congregation for their support of this recent event. Over the course of three days Fellowship Hall became filled with clothes for all occasions and for all members of the family. On the day of the sale a steady stream of shoppers bought bag after bag of clothing. At the conclusion of the sale a profit of $443.75 had been generated. But the good will went beyond our doors. Additionally a truckload of clothing was taken to Daniel's Closet and a truckload to the West End Community Center. The Newberry Branch of NGA took several bags to support their work and finally the American Rescue Workers took the remainder. When the last bag was loaded onto their truck one of the men said "Bless you for supporting our work."

A special thank you goes to Lou and Linda DeSeau, Nancy Shires and her girls, Jane Kline, Shirley Vognet, Jackie and Shirley Kinney, Bob Jones, Michelle Fredericks, Shirley Miller, Bunny Ditchfield, Michelle, Kirk and Devin Owen, Ernestine Doane, Grace Arner, Elsie Sechler, Rick Robertson, Steve Eyer, Gary and Riley Weber, and Pastor and Donna Elkin.

A modest but enthusiastic group of 26 visited the display of 50 Icons in Fellowship Hall on April 11. Rev. Dan Kovalak was our guest lecturer and shared his vast knowledge of the subject in a very interesting and entertaining way.

Our head caterer, Bob Jones and his assistants served authentic scones along with a variety of teas. It was a special afternoon learning about our wonderful collection of icons.

HEALTH, HEALING & WHOLENESS

"Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (John 21:18)

Jesus is telling Peter what to expect in the future, that he too will face the kind of fate that Jesus did. Peter, the impetuous disciple, needed to accept the sobering reality of what it meant to be a follower of Christ. Whenever I read it, this verse also speaks to me of the sacrifices that we sometimes have to make as we grow older.

No one wants to find him or herself in the situation in which they are dependent upon others for their daily activities. That is why it is so difficult to make the decision of whether or not we should give up driving. Please understand that getting older does not automatically turn one into a bad driver; however, sometimes physical limitations can make it more challenging. Stiffening in joints may make it more difficult to turn your head side-to-side to watch for on-coming traffic, to accelerate, and to brake. They can also make it uncomfortable for our hands to grip the steering wheel. Reflexes are slower, and vision problems such as glaucoma, macular degeneration, or cataracts make it more difficult to respond to the glare of on-coming headlights, street lights, or bright sunlight, and sometimes limit our peripheral vision.

We can compensate for some of these age-related conditions by carefully planning ahead: driving during the day-time; keeping to familiar streets; taking routes that avoid risky traffic spots, such as left turns and on-off ramps; not driving when we are stressed or tired; leaving at least two car lengths between our vehicle and the one in front of us; and keeping our headlights on at all times. Regardless of age, we should all wear a safety belt and stay off the cell phone when behind the wheel! Consider taking a driving refresher course (contact AAA or AARP) – in fact, by doing so, you may receive a discount on your car insurance (depending on your carrier and policy).

But when should we hand over our keys? AARP (www.aarp.org/families/driver_safety) proposes the following warning signs as indicators that we should either limit, or stop driving either temporarily or permanently (one or more):

- Feeling uncomfortable and nervous or fearful while driving.
- Dents and scrapes on the car or on fences, mailboxes, garage doors, curbs, etc.
- Difficulty staying in the lane of traffic.
- Getting lost – particularly in familiar areas.
- Trouble paying attention to signals, road signs, cones and barrels, and pavement markings.
- Slower response to unexpected situations (animals crossing, road construction, people walking/running)
- Medical conditions or medications that may affect safe driving (ex. untreated sleep apnea, diabetes, stroke)
- Difficulty judging gaps in traffic at intersections and on-off ramps
- Drivers frequently honking at you
- Friends or relatives no longer willing to ride with you
- Difficulty seeing the sides of the road when looking ahead (peripheral vision)
- Easily distracted; hard time concentrating
- Hard time looking over shoulders while backing up or changing lanes
- Frequent traffic tickets or "warnings"; driving through red lights
- Friends/loved ones expressing concern about our driving
- Frequent "near misses/close calls"

None of us wants to feel that we must surrender our freedom to be an active participant in society; however, we also need to be realistic regarding our safety, and the safety of others when we get behind the wheel. We can still be productive and enjoy a full life without driving. It takes some planning, and some sacrifice on our part. Don't wait; begin to explore other options now. You may be surprised. The money spent on maintaining a car, may go a long way toward paying someone to drive for us!

Spring Blessings!

*“ I Love to Tell the

with

Fiona Siobhan Powell

From Welsh cottages and Scottish crofts, to German castles, the voice of the storyteller once rang around the world. This universal and ancient tradition is kept alive by modern Storytellers. Fiona Siobhan Powell is one such storyteller. Wherever your ancestors were from, Fiona probably knows a tale from that land! For although Fiona specializes in tales from her native Wales, Scotland and England, over the years people have "gifted" her with stories from around the world. In this cold and lonely world of entertainment in a box, come and discover the warmth of an hour spent with laughter, and maybe a few tears in the ancient tradition of the bards!
