JUNE 2010

Friendship Ministry planned for July

Based upon a proposal from the Mutual Ministry Committee, the Congregation Council urges that we embark on a Friendship Ministry among our members.

The goals are to increase communication among the members, and to make sure that each person knows that he or she is loved and cared for by someone who reaches out because of the love of Jesus Christ.

At the direction of the Congregation Council, the Mutual Ministry Committee is developing a process for us to share in a process of caring for one another. We are inviting a large number of members to visit one or two other members this summer. We are approaching about 35 members to serve as visitors because they exemplify some of the best characteristics of such a visitor: cares for people, good listener, able to share one's faith with others, projects a positive attitude about the congregation, enthusiastic, patient, respects confidentiality, and regular in church attendance.

They will gather at 7:00 P.M. on June 27 to prepare for the task of visiting one or two persons who have been ill, some who have been drifting away from the regular common life of the church family, or who may simply be glad to hear an encouraging word.

The entire congregation is invited to pray for the success of this venture; to pray for the visitors as well as for those who may be visited.

It is always a good time for such communication as we remember scripture's encouraging word:

God will equip you with all you need for doing his will. -Heb. 13:20-21.

July Fourth Celebration

It is time to begin planning for our annual July Fourth celebration on our front lawn. Last year we welcomed more than 300 people to St. Amark's. To be ready for a big crowd again this year the Social Ministry Committee needs donations of:

- ξ bags of popcorn
- ξ containers of lemonade and ice tea mix
- ξ two-liter bottles of soda in all flavors, both regular and diet
- bottled water in 8 oz. and 16 oz. bottles (We used ten cases last year.)
- ξ snack size bags of chips, pretzels, and fruit snacks
- bags of Tootsie Rolls, Dum-Dum suckers, Smarties, and bubble gum
- ξ boxes of snack size plastic bags
- ξ bottles of ketchup, mustard and jars of sweet pickle relish
- ξ small prizes and trinkets
- money to offset the cost of paper products, hotdogs, rolls, popcorn, oil, ice and other trinkets.

Donations of these items can be placed in the Narthex. Checks may be made payable to St. Mark's earmarked for July Fourth. Volunteers are also needed to set up, serve, and clean up this event. Please see the sign-up sheets in the Narthex or speak with Becky Miller Pryor.

Christian Service Opportunities

Hosting for Family Promise

St. Mark's was the first congregation to offer shelter to families experiencing a housing crisis. We prepared bedrooms and set-up Fellowship Hall for meals and activities. But during that first week no families stayed with us. The first family in the program spent a week at Messiah Lutheran. Due to a scheduling conflict this family is now at St. Mark's through June 6, 2010.

Jane Zimmerer and Becky Miller Pryor wish to thank the congregation and all the volunteers who donated their time, hosting supplies, food, and money to make this week possible. Continue to keep this family and Family Promise in your prayers.

Our next opportunity to assist families experiencing a housing crisis will be August 15, 2010 – August 22, 2010.

More Volunteers Needed

Jane Zimmerer and Becky Miller Pryor are looking for additional volunteers to assist with hosting at St. Mark's. More volunteers give us more flexibility in scheduling. Please consider joining in this important outreach to families in need. The first step to volunteering is to enroll in a training session with Family Promise Executive Director, Melissa Magargle.

Training sessions are approximately 2 ½ hours in length and are scheduled as follows.

- Tuesday June 1, 2010 at St. Ann's RCC at 6:30 PM.
- · Monday, June 7, 2010 at St. Paul-Calvary UMC at 4:00 PM.
- · Wednesday, June 9, 2010 at St. Ann's RCC at 6:30 PM.
- · Thursday, June 17, 2010 at St. Paul-Calvary UMC at 1:00 PM.

Please register with Melissa Magargle by telephoning the Day Center at 570-567-7103 or by emailing her at mmagargle@gmail.com.

No Summer Vacation from Hunger

For families experiencing a financial crisis, summer time can be an added strain with the need for additional food to feed a family. With children no longer in school, additional breakfast and lunch items are needed. Please help the Social Ministry Committee ease this burden by donating non-perishable food items to the United Churches Food Pantry. Plastic grocery bags will be available after each service on June 6 and June 13. Please ret bags will be available after each service on June 6 and June 13. Please return these bags with your donations by Sunday, June 20, 2010. Thank you for any help you can give.

The Morally Divided Body: Ethical Disagreement and the Disunity of the Church: June 14-16, 2010

This is an ecumenical conference for clergy and laity sponsored by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology. It will be held Monday evening, June 14, through Wednesday noon, June 16, 2010, at Loyola University, Baltimore, MD. While doctrinal issues have often in the past been the most ecumenically neuralgic topics, increasingly today ethical issues - abortion and homosexuality most prominently - have become a focus of difference between the churches and of potentially splintering debate within churches. These issues are more laden with emotion than many traditional doctrinal disputes, but ecumenical discussions have yet to address them in detail. We have little sense of just when and how ethical disputes rightly impact communion within and among the churches. When can we live together with difference over such matters and when does unity in Christ require common teaching? These questions will be addressed from a variety of perspectives. Accommodations will be available on the Loyola Campus. Conference cost (including banquet): $210; reduced price for early registrations, retired clergy ($175), and students ($95). For more information, contact Michael Root at 803-735-1178 or mroot1@sc.rr.com. Online registration at http://www.acteva.com/go/ccet. More information and mail-in registration at http://www.e-ccet.org.

From the Shepherd of the Streets

In the Skin of the Poor

by J. Morris Smith, Th.D. Contact at: 322-6538

Most all who read this could not be poor. We have three things that sustain our way of life that the poor do not have, or have lost, or have rejected at some time or other. We have PEOPLE-family, friends, church, colleagues. These create an interchange of care. If my house were to burn down today, by nightfall I would have several offers to stay until arrangements could be made.

We have EDUCATION-we have been taught by caring people, both formally and by traditional training, caring discipline and the wisdom of God. In the process, most of us have developed some kind of skill which fits into the social and economic strata of living in a capitalistic society. We have CONNECTION and have accepted the fact that living in a human community takes a sense of justice, a willing spirit to conform to the mores and standards of human comportment.

For the poor these are not available. A capitalistic society judges by the standard of money. Lack of education, insufficient language and math skills, defective rationale, unguided compliance, lack of accommodation, ignorance of consequences due to unlearned rationale are the ways of the poor and places the poor in a class outside the accepted network used by the rest of the community.

The poor person is often raised in an atmosphere that produces the typical "poor person" who stands out in the crowd. If not raised that way, poor choices, disabilities, and rebellion have produced that outcome.

The poor person is often the object of blame, judged by appearance and performance to be lazy (not willing to improve himself), hazy (on drugs or alcohol), or crazy (mentally ill). The poor person is an exposed person-the way of life is obvious, very little privacy, frequenting places that feed and help only the poor. The poor person is deprived of the basics of social living: cleanliness, enough sleep, proper nutrition and is vulnerable to constant illness by weather and unsanitary living conditions. The poor person is restricted by the lack of choices (often the food from food pantries is low in vitality and high in starch and sugar), with no options or alternatives, (clothing is often pre-worn and "the latest thing" five years ago). The poor person is harassed: the first suspected by the law, distrusted in stores, disbelieved and must prove everything if applying for help, often evicted because of failure to pay the inflated price of rentals, subject to utility shut-off for failure to pay those inflated prices, too, always having to show their I.D. to get anything or anywhere. The poor person lives in a sense of rejection because of these things, but also because people distance themselves from them on the job (for theirs is often the lowest and least enumerated), in public restrooms, in grocery stores, on the street, and, I hate to say it, in church.

The outcome of the life of the poor is a person who is angry in a world of alienation. Anger might show itself in aggressive ways, but most often in the way a poor person develops survival strategies: selfishness, denial, and callousness (the walls of defense for a broken spirit). Overtly this leaves a trail of lack of respect for person or property, inhibition that looks like belligerence, retarded human interaction, lack of desire, poor reasoning, and lack of integrity (survival strategies of dishonesty and misrepresentation).

To help the poor, therefore, one must be willing to step into this strange world, to give attention, to touch, to learn the language, smell the smells. That is the mandate of Jesus- to help the poor. When we do, we find that we are poor-poor in love, joy, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, which happens to be very fruit the Holy Spirit desires to produce in us (Galatians 5:22-23).

We so appreciate all you who step forward to help the poor by providing hygiene items, bedding, and baby needs. We appreciate the monetary contributions to fund our general budget to keep our ministry open, and the donations for discretionary and prescription funds. The list of hygiene items (which often are depleted in the summer) are: (regular sizes please...)

Deodorant Tissues Combs Baby Q-Tips Toothpaste and Toothbrushes Shampoo and Conditioner Towels and Wash Cloths Baby Wipes Soap Toilet Paper Baby Diapers Shaving Cream and Razors Women's Hygiene Products Baby Shampoo, Powder, Oil

Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near."

(James 5:7-8, NRSV)

It has been said that some feel closest to God when they are working the land; yet farming can be a stressful and dangerous occupation. Those of us who live in cities and towns, may take for granted the patience and sacrifice that goes into raising the produce, milk, and meat that we consume. Farming is tough, at times unpredictable labor, and the fruits of it are often undervalued on the open market.

Recently CNN Money (4/8/2010) reported that according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, farming is in the top five most dangerous occupations in this country. Not only are there dangers in using farm machinery, but economics, and stretches of bad weather can push the farmer toward the breaking point. When money gets tight, repairs are let go, and safety equipment is not retro-fitted, putting the farmer and his/her family in further danger. Farmers are exposed to harmful chemicals and toxic fumes from silage and manure pits. They run an increased risk of malignant melanoma due to sun exposure. Yet every day – 365 days a year, they continue their work. Some say it is in their blood – it is all they have ever dreamed of doing. They see God's handiwork when they look out over their fields, crops, and their livestock.

The reality is that our farmers often keep their suffering silent, and we become willing accomplices, by adding to the financial squeeze - after all, who wants to pay an extra fifty cents for a gallon of milk or a dozen eggs? It's time we wake up!

In June of 2009, Miles Moffeit, of the Denver Times, reported that Seeds of Hope, a crisis hotline serving farm-belt states, had already logged 11,000 calls since the beginning of that year. Farm Aid's Farmer Resource Network and Hotline (1-800-FARM-AID) directs farmers to access mental health and suicide prevention assistance all over the country - depression and suicide rates among farmers have increased. What are the signs of depression? They can include: persistent sadness or anxiety; increase or decreased appetite; physical symptoms such as headaches, digestive disorders, chronic pain; irritability, restlessness; feelings of guilt/worthlessness; hopelessness; sleeping too much or too little; loss of interest in once pleasurable activity; difficulty concentrating and making decisions; thoughts of death or suicide – any of these symptoms lasting longer than two weeks need to be followed-up with a visit to a healthcare provider.

How can the farmer better manage the stress? By openly discussing or venting about problems, concerns, and fears – to friends, extended family, church members, formal and informal support networks. Recognize that he/she is never too old to learn – keeping updated on farming practices, biotechnology, and marketing - by reading, searching the internet, contacting the county or state Extension office. Make time for family – take a yearly vacation, attend children's sporting events and teacher conferences. Meet as a family on Saturday or Sunday evening, and plan out the upcoming week's work schedule. Get regular exercise, stretch and walk; listen to music; enjoy a hobby. Lower health risks by taking extra precautions to combat sun exposure – use sunscreen of at least 15 spf, wear a brimmed had that shades eyes, ears, and neck – wear sunglasses with a UV rating of at least 100. When the tension becomes too much – get some outside help. Contact your healthcare provider, speak to your pastor or parish nurse.

What can "we", the consumer, do? As much as possible, we can buy directly from the farmer. We can listen. We can advocate, for by supporting realistic and just pricing of his/her goods and services. And we can pray – for good weather, bountiful harvest, healthy animals, much needed rest, and regularly give thanks for those who have played such a huge role in feeding us every single day.

Summer Blessings!
