

THE LION OF ST. MARK'S

AUGUST 2014

Time to begin again.

We have a few adults who are very regular in participation in Christian education, but a healthy congregation should have many more.

Spending time with the Bible can be both a great joy and challenge. God's word both points out our separation from God and each other, as well as the Good News of what Jesus has done and is doing to change our situation. It is work, but the most rewarding work we can do.

- † In the Crossways group at 9:15 on Sunday mornings, we are moving through the scriptures using Dr. Harry Wendt's landmark study materials. We'll pick up where we paused in May, with the people of Israel wandering in the wilderness. What lessons are there in that situation for us in our life today? There is much to discuss.
- † The Middle Lounge group chooses a topic related to scripture to explore also at 9:15 on Sundays.
- † At noon on Wednesdays we are engaged in a continuing study of the Psalms, now up to Psalm 54, at the pace of one Psalm per week. Bring a sandwich and join in the thoughtful exploration.
- † And for the early risers, join the men on Thursday morning at 6:31. Currently we are reading the N. T. Wright commentary on Paul's prison letter: Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon. Dr. Wright is a very engaging writer.
- † And then the October Lay School will soon be planned. If you have a topic you would like to see covered, please call.

Show me your ways,
O LORD,
teach me
your paths;
guide me
in your truth
and teach me,
for you are God
my Savior, and my hope
is in you all day long.

Psalm 25:4-5

Enjoy your August Fun!

A New Opportunity

The first thing that we do together as Christians is worship, so it would be a good thing to spend some time thinking about this first work of God's people called the liturgy. All of these things that we say and do together stand in a very long tradition, with some roots back to the worship in synagogue and temple. The reading of scripture has been enriched by the contributions of many generations through creeds, prayers, hymns, canticles, devotional customs, paraments and vestments, solo, choral, instrumental and organ music, and more.

In order to delve into this great treasury, those who are curious are invited to gather at 6:30 PM on Wednesday August 13 and Wednesday August 20 in the Library to begin exploring the book A Handbook of Church Music by Carl Schalk with Pastor Elkin and Jungwha Kim. We will also be referring to the Commentary on the Lutheran Book of Worship by Philip Pfatteicher. It would be helpful if those interested would please let Pastor Elkin know so that we may search out copies of the Handbook on the second-hand market.

Reconciliation Process update:

Council has been very busy in processing the recommendations from the Synod Reconciliation team. The meetings have been long, thoughtful, and have given all members a chance for input and suggestions.

Council adopted the recommendations at the July 7 meeting. The recommendations involve personnel, roles and responsibilities of council, committees, policies and goals for the church through its committees and constitution.

The Reconciliation team has been present with us in our two summer Council meetings that followed its report and recommendations given to us on May 27.

Council prioritized the recommendations and the reconciliation process has begun and is the top priority for the council. We will share the findings with the congregation in the coming months. Please be assured that we are constantly praying that the Holy Spirit will guide us in the direction that he directs us in our St. Mark's family.

President Ray Huff

Greeters Needed!

*Can you smile? Can you say "Welcome to St. Mark's"?
Can you shake someone's hand?*

Then you have the skills needed to be a Sunday Morning greeter!
Anyone can be a greeter. Any age can greet.

Even if you attend the early service you can still be a second service greeter. Shirley Vognet has graciously volunteered to schedule greeters. Please call her (323-0335) and let her know which Sunday you are available.

MILESTONE MINISTRY

PROGRESSIONS

On Sunday, August 3, we recognize those young adults who have just graduated from high school and are heading out on their own, be it college, the military, or employment. We also recognize parents as they experience their children leaving the nest. May they come to understand that the only way we truly keep hold of something is by letting go and that they take comfort in the knowledge that God will be with these young people as they take the next step in their lives.

We pray that God will be with all of them and guide them into a new, stronger relationship with each other and with Him.

At an extended hospitality after the 10:30 service, hopefully in the courtyard, there will be opportunity to wish the youth well, encourage the parents and record contact information.

70+, SINGLE AND STILL PRAISING GOD

Is for seniors who are widowed or were never married. On Sunday, August 10, we will honor them for their years of service and friendship. When they RSVP to the event, we ask them to let us know 2-3 hymns which had significance in their lives. These are incorporated into the service that day or used for a sing-a-long after lunch. We request a memento or photograph of each from an important moment in his or her young adulthood and create a display for the event. Invitations will soon be sent.

BLESSING OF THE KEYS

We have a special milestone celebration for the youth in our congregation who attain their junior driver's licenses. BUT YOU NEED TO TELL US WHO SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED!!

Please remember, we are human and therefore fallible (along with our computers).
If you or a friend have not received notification of any of these milestones and feel that you should, PLEASE CALL US!!

SUMMER FORUM AUGUST TOPICS!

Come to the Crossways Room for a wide variety of topics and conversation sparked by videos on Sunday mornings at 9:15 this summer. The topics are:

- † August 3 and 10 the video "Encounters with John Wesley" brings to life the legendary preacher's search of faith, his tireless traveling, the violent opposition he faced, and his passionate drive to "do what good I can."
- † August 17 a visit from Mr. Robert Apple of Gideon's International.
- † August 24 the video "Man with a Mission" interviews a noted scholar of the life and work of William Tyndale, who was called to make the Scriptures available in the English language, at the risk of his life.

Caring for Our Treasures

Our first treasure is the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And then we have many secondary treasures, some of which have been passed on to us from prior generations at St. Mark's. Our property at 142 Market Street is one of those treasures, which we care for gratefully, and use in so many different ways. It takes lots of time, energy, and resources to give the care which the property needs, and our Property Committee is charged with the responsibility of that care. Our long-time sexton, Lou DeSeau, does a wonderful job of regular maintenance as well as tackling special projects and requests from the program staff. He cannot possibly do everything that is needed around the property, and we depend upon a corps of volunteers to assist in a variety of larger tasks.

On Sunday, July 20, we recognized the continuing work of these persons at the Hospitality time following the 10:30 service. Four retired men spend some time at the church most every week: Bob Miller, Tim Maggs, Carl Hieber and Carl Albright. The chair of the Committee, Paul Zimmerer, also is deeply involved when he can spare some time from his employment. These are by no means the only volunteers. The remaining committee members, spouses, and other persons also help with various projects from time to time; but these four men are the leaders among the assistants to Lou DeSeau.

We remember that we are not making a museum or a monument. We are caring for this property so that it can be an effective tool for ministry of the Gospel in this community, and give honor to God by its beauty and functionality. Anyone with ideas for improving the work, or even better, some time to assist with the work, are urged to contact Paul Zimmerer or Lou DeSeau to become involved in the ongoing work and special projects.

Summer Musicians Needed!

We need musicians who would like to contribute their talents to enhance summer worship. Anyone who wants to sing, play an instrument as solo, duet, or more, talk to Jungwha at jkim@stmarkswilliamsport.org or call her at the church: 323-4619 or on her cell: 560-3627.

Let's sing and play so that we can praise the Lord through our musical gifts.

Congratulations and thanks to Shelby Weber – who was the only response to my request for information about graduating seniors. Riley won several awards at graduation including the president's award for academic excellence, a Hermance scholarship, the Lycoming County Counselors' Association scholarship and the First Community Foundation Barbour scholarship – great work, Riley. He is off to University of Pittsburgh to study pharmacy.

Devin Owen received a book grant at his graduation from South Williamsport and plans to go to the Pennsylvania College of Technology.

Evan Barone was honored as a Junior Rotarian at Rotary's annual luncheon in May.

On the athletic front Lynna Robertson pitched a brilliant two hitter that included 11 strikeouts to win the Section 3 Major Division championship. Williamsport finished the tournament undefeated to go on to the state tournament in Greensburg – Lynna's father and coach must have been very proud! Sean Jensen has won several trophies at basketball camps this summer.

St. Mark's young people continue to cover themselves with glory – Grace Schreckengast received the Gene Yaw citizenship award at Loyalsock Middle School!

Emily Newcomer has already begun her freshman year at St. Joseph's in Philadelphia. She was the winner of the Clair and Mary Miller business award.

We are so proud of all of our young people for all their achievements!

Sunday School Teacher Openings

Yes, we realize it just seems like yesterday that the school year ended. But, we are asking you now to look at your schedule for the coming year to find a month or two (or three? or more?) that you can assist our children by teaching Sunday School.

This is one of the most valuable and rewarding ministries of St. Mark's: creating the foundation on which the church can grow in years to come.

Please search your hearts, talk to those who are already involved and call the office today to volunteer (or email or facebook Michele).
