

THE LION OF ST. MARK'S

JANUARY 2019

If growing in faith is truly your #1 priority in life, shouldn't it top your list of New Year's resolutions? Sure, there's nothing wrong with losing weight or paying off debt...but what about your faith? What about your Christian New Year's Resolutions?

Here's a list of Christian New Year's Resolutions. It might spark some ideas or be helpful in picking a really good one:

1. Read Your Bible 20 Minutes a Day, Every Day

Sure, reading the Bible consistently may not sound like a very glamorous or interesting Christian New Year's Resolution at first, but it really does make a difference!

2. Go to Church Every Week without Fail

Is going to church really necessary? Yes. The New Year is the perfect time to get back in the habit if it's been a while.

3. Set Aside 20 Minutes Each Day to Pray

Sometimes it's easier to consume information all day long — magazines, podcasts, TV...those things are definitely good. But we run the risk of filling our brains with SO much noise that we crowd out all the space for quiet reflection and prayer. Carving out 20 minutes of quiet time in prayer doesn't have to be difficult.

For example, you could:

- Wake up 20 minutes earlier
- Pray in the shower
- Pray while you're doing your hair/make-up
- Pray during your morning or evening commute
- Pray on your lunch break
- Pray while making dinner
- Pray with your kids before bed every night

The possibilities are endless!

4. Join a Bible Study

Does your church have a regular Bible study or do you know of one in your area? If not — ask around! You can even create your own.

Not only is this Christian New Year's Resolution a great way to dig into the Bible for greater insights, but you can find some great community this way as well.

5. Try Fasting

Fasting is a spiritual discipline that is very powerful, but often overlooked. Maybe this year is the year you want to read up on it and try it out?

6. Start Tithing

The Scriptures are very clear — Christians are called to be generous. If you haven't gotten in the tithing habit yet, now is a great time to start! Even if you can't give a lot, start with something. You can always work your way up as your faith grows (and it will!)

7. Forgive Past Grudges

The Bible makes it abundantly clear — if you are a Christian, you are expected to forgive those who have hurt you. Note: This doesn't mean what they did is okay, but you do need to get rid of any grudges or un-forgiveness you may be harboring in your heart.

8. Find a Mentor or Accountability Partner

It's one thing to say you're going to make a change in your life — it's another to find someone to keep you accountable to actually make that change. If you're feeling stuck — or just serious about changing — find a mentor or accountability partner to help hold you accountable.

9. Be a More Loving/Involved Spouse, Parent, Sibling, or Friend

We're all guilty of letting our relationships slide a bit at times. Ready to make this year the year you change that? Don't promise to just "do better." Get specific. What are 1-5 specific actions you are going to do to improve your relationships and when are you going to do them?

10. Be Content with What You Have

It is difficult to be content in America. There are always ads and commercials surrounding us, reminding us to want more, more, more. This year — maybe you want to get intentional about fighting that urge. Perhaps you'd like to try a "No Spend" month, and then save that money for something important or give it to charity?

11. Refuse to Gossip

Are you guilty of gossiping? Maybe this year is the year you decide to change that.

12. Do Random Acts of Kindness

This is a fun one — and it's actually really easy to do if you're willing to get creative! Choose a set number to do every week or month. It will be well worth it!

So, what Christian New Year's Resolutions are you making this year?

Grace to you and peace.

Welcome to 2019, more precisely, the Year of Our Lord 2019! I often get caught up the practice of looking back on the events of one year and wondering about what will happen in the year ahead. However useful that may be, I'm wondering if it might be helpful to reflect on the reality that God has been reflecting on what it means to have lived among us as a human being for two thousand nineteen years. Time and eternity meet in Christ Jesus. Living in this reality helps us see our place in this unfolding history. Strange as it sounds, history is our making sense of how God draws us into the future creating it for us one day at a time.

My prayer for all of us is that we take time to bask in the glory of Christmas/Epiphany. I like it when the day of Epiphany (January 6) is a Sunday. It's a reminder that Christmas and Epiphany are connected. We can learn much about our own times when we reflect on the realities that faced the Holy Family. This is the deep mystery of faith, we are wrapped up in this history as well. It is the family history of the people of God. May this season of Epiphany teach us to learn from each other what it means to be part of God's history. As we share our own stories, we will hear echoes of that first Christmas throughout this new year of grace.

Pray for me as I pray for you always in Christ Jesus.

Pastor James

Thank You for the Christmas Gifts

The Outreach Committee thanks the congregation for their support of their many December projects.

- * On December 2, 2018 St. Mark's Elves traveled to the Selinsgrove Center to once again share stories, songs, bubbles, balloons and gifts with the seventeen ladies of CM-6 and their caregivers. It was a very special afternoon for the ladies and our elves. Heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the congregation for their generous donations of money, body wash and pudding to fill in with the gifting. We were blessed to receive more from the ladies and their caregivers than we gave.
- * With assistance from congregation members, the residents of the Danville State Hospital received everything from batteries to packages of socks, hats, gloves, watches and wallets totaling 88 clothing items and 78 batteries. These many and varied items were used where they were most needed. A member of Redeemer Lutheran Church graciously delivered our donations to the hospital with those from Redeemer. The committee thanks all who participated in this outreach.

- * On December 9, 2018 three carloads of carolers visited with our Special Concern Folks and others. Thank you Bernadette Jones for making soup for our luncheon that day. To the folks, particularly our young people, who sang carols and delivered cookies thank you for taking time from your busy schedules to bring cheer to others.
- * On December 14, 2018 we hosted a Red Cross Blood Drive in Fellowship Hall. Sixteen units of blood that included donations from Pastor West and Lou DeSeau were collected. This quantity can save up to forty-eight lives! Our next Blood Drive will be Friday, July 19, 2019.
- * Thank you to all the members of the congregation, who also took Christmas cards from our trees in the Narthex, added a cheery message and mailed them to our Special Concerns Folks and others we do not see as often as we would like.
- * The Christian Education Committee and the Outreach Committee thank the congregation for participating in Reverse Advent. As of press time many boxes were being returned filled with food items and hygiene products. Look for a total count in an upcoming Sunday bulletin.
- * Many thanks to the several congregation members who donated treats for the Christmas Eve hospitality that was served between the two services. It was a joyous time of food and fellowship.

These gestures of Christmas spirit given by our congregation were sure to comfort the individuals receiving them in Christ's name.

We found a container of cookies on our porch with a note from Becky, to enjoy the gift. We surmised they were from the Carolers. We regret we missed your visit. However, we certainly have enjoyed the delicious cookies. Thank you very much. We are sorry we missed your singing voices.

Nibbles from the Church Mouse

Last night Harold and I had the pleasure of watching our grandson, Sean Jensen, play his first official game with the varsity basketball team at Loyalsock High School. Sean was named to the team as a sophomore, which is a real honor.

The evening began with the singing of the national anthem by our own Sadie Wentzel—she did a beautiful job singing what is a difficult number. Then we heard the Loyalsock Pep Band perform songs that really added to the excitement of the evening and spied Sadie's sister, Taylor, as a member of the group. It was a wonderful St. Mark's evening!

Good news for Ed Barone- he recently joined Evergreen Wealth Solutions. He was previously vice president senior client adviser for Wilmington Trust. He is very excited about his new position and the contributions the education foundation is making in the community. Good luck, Ed!

More news about Sadie and Taylor. Taylor had her music audition at Penn State and Sadie has one coming up in January.

Both girls were in the county band concert as were Jonah Schreckengast and Hannah Haussmann. At that performance Taylor was selected by the County Band Directors Association to receive their annual scholarship for outstanding, selfless leadership and dedication to music—a wonderful honor for Taylor.

Sadie has earned a role in the upcoming musical "Little Shop of Horrors" at Loyalsock High School—it will be interesting to know what role she has!

Warmest best wishes to all of you for a blessed Christmas and New Year and hopes for real progress in our search for a new Pastor!

~ Joyce S. Hershberger

Dear St. Mark's family,

What a wonderful surprise visit by the Christmas Carolers last week! Thank you for spreading cheer and for delivering the home baked cookies. Such a treat!

My family and I sincerely appreciate your warm wishes and prayers during my recovery.

Wishing you the many joys of Christmas!

~ Elda Zeigler

A Note from Worship and Music

You may have noticed that the trees have been placed in the chancel earlier than in the past. The Worship and Music Committee felt that as this would possibly add to another welcoming sign during Advent. The trees were placed for the Second Sunday in Advent and will be lit for the Third Sunday in Advent and the Senior High Sunday School class will adorn the tree with decorations following that service.

The committee thanks Dan and Diana Zeigler for their work in getting the trees and bringing them to St. Mark's. We also thank our "elves" who worked on getting the trees in place for the service on December 9. They were, in no particular order, Ed Gair, Matt Fortin, Drew Haussmann (tree and body fixing), Tom Miller, Mel Wentzel and Levi Gair. Special thanks to our senior elf, Lou DeSeau, for his arrangement of the tables and all-around assistance.

The new 2019 Altar Flower Schedule book is now ready. Please check it and contact Sally Bjornstad (570-494-6637) with additions or changes.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Thanks to your generous support, St. Mark's packed 40 OCC shoeboxes in 2018! Not only did we fill these boxes with all sorts of goodies, we raised the entire $360.00 needed to cover shipping costs. Thank you! Thank you!

This year, the Christian Education Committee and Outreach Committee would like to challenge our congregation to pack 45 shoeboxes for OCC! It can easily (and dare I say painlessly) be done with our simple, monthly collections.

In January, we are collecting: Fun Pads (small, activity pads), Journals, and Knit Hats

These items may be placed in our red, OCC bin located in the narthex. We are excited to see where this ministry takes us in 2019! Thank you for your generosity in helping spread God's love.
